

Cultural Orders

Interdisciplinary Workshop

with Graduate Students from LMU Munich and UC Berkeley

within the LMU-UCB Research in the Humanities-Program

Date: June 5 – 10, 2017

Venue: Graduate School for East and Southeast European Studies,
Maria-Theresia-Str. 21, 81675 Munich, “Library”

Program

Monday, June 5

Arrival

Tuesday, June 6

– LMU Munich, Historic Main Building, Geschwister-Scholl-Platz 1 –

10.00 – 13.00 Individual meetings and trips

15.30 – Welcoming in Munich

Meeting Point: Geschwister-Scholl-Platz 1 (Main Entrance LMU)

16.00 – Guided City Tour (Max Trecker)

18.00 – Dinner

Café & Restaurant “Tresznjewski” Theresienstrasse 72

Wednesday, June 7

– Graduate School, Maria-Theresia-Str. 21 (Library) –

10.00 – 10.30 – Welcome at Graduate School

Prof. Dr. Riccardo Nicolosi, Dr. Nina Weller

10.30 – 11.30 – Presentation 1:

Philipp Tvrdinić, M.A. (Munich): Stanisław Lem and Cybernetics

Discussant: Prof. Dr. Harsha Ram

11.30 – 12.30 – Presentation 2:

Frances Jackson, M.A. (Munich): Quod credas ... Allegory in Post-Munich Czech poetry

Discussant: Prof. Dr. Harsha Ram

12.30 – 14.00 – Lunch

Cafeteria at the “Prinzregententheater”, Prinzregentenplatz 12

14.15 – 15.45 – Coffee break

15.45 – 16.45 – Presentation 3:

Isobel Palmer, M.A. (Berkeley): Rhythm in Blok’s City: Poetry, Eventfulness, and the Revolution of 1905

Discussant: Dr. Anja Burghardt

16.45 – 17.45 – Presentation 4:

Matthew Kendall, M.A. (Berkeley): Kak chitat’ stsenarii: Sound and Gender in Two Screenplays from Andrei Platonov

Discussant: Prof. Dr. Raoul Eshelman

19.00 – Dinner

Max Emanuel Brauerei, Adalbertstrasse 33

Thursday, June 8

– Graduate School, Maria-Theresia-Str. 21 (Library) –

9.00 – 10.00 – Presentation 5:

Ruslan Mitrofanov, M.A. (Munich): Russian Imperial Psychiatry in Search of Languages of Self-Analysis: Violence, Humanism and Psychiatric Power at the end of the 19th – early 20th Century

Discussant: Prof. Dr. Victoria Frede

10.00 – 11.00 – Presentation 6:

Max Trecker, M.A. (Munich): Forging the Indian Steel Industry: The Economic Side of the Cold War in the Global South

Discussant: Prof. Dr. Victoria Frede

11.00 – 11.30 – Coffee break

11.30 – 12.30 – Presentation 7:

Rhiannon Dowling, M.A. (Berkeley): Brezhnev-era Crime Stories: Facts and Fictions

Discussant: Prof. Dr. Anton Fedyashin

12.30 – 14.00 – Lunch

Cafeteria at the "Prinzregententheater", Prinzregentenplatz 12

14.15 – 15.45 – Coffee break

15.45–16.45 – Presentation 8:

Joseph Kellner, M.A. (Berkeley): The Search for New History at the Collapse of the USSR

Discussant: Dr. Franziska Davies

16.45 – 17.45 – Presentation 9:

Jason Morton, M.A. (Berkeley): The Relationship between Stalinist era 'folklore' and Late Socialist Anekdoty. Featuring the Soviet Civil War Hero Vasilii Ivanovich Chapaev

Discussant: Prof. Dr. Martin Schulze Wessel

20.00 – Dinner (Conclusion)

Café/ Restaurant "Altschwabing", Schelling Str. 56

Friday, June 9

– Meeting Point as agreed on –

Joint trip to Murnau (City Tour Murnau, Münter-Haus) or “Pinakothek der Moderne” in Munich

Saturday, June 10

Departure