

ON THE MOVE - ARCHAEOLOGIES OF HUMAN MOBILITY AND MIGRATION II

Workshop organized within the framework of the program
"LMU - UCB Research in the Humanities"
Berkeley, September 13 and 14, 2017

Organizers

Dr. Benjamin Porter (UC Berkeley, Department of Near Eastern Studies, bwporter@berkeley.edu)

Dr. Caroline von Nicolai (LMU, Institut für Vor- und Frühgeschichtliche Archäologie und Provinzialrömische Archäologie, c.v.nicolai@vfpa.fak12.uni-muenchen.de)

Participants

Julia Budka, Margaret W. Conkey, Andrea Creel, Mélanie Flossmann-Schütze, Lisa Maher, Caroline von Nicolai, Benjamin Porter, Michael Roaf, Alexander Schütze, Philipp
Stockhammer, Jun Sunseri, Ruth Tringham, Nicholas Tripcevich

Schedule

Wednesday, September 13

Location: Phoebe Hearst Museum Gallery Learning Center

9:30 -- Arrival

10:00 Benjamin Porter (Berkeley) and Caroline von Nicolai (Munich), On the Move: An Introduction to the LMU-Berkeley Research Group on Mobility and Migration

10:25 Caroline von Nicolai (Munich), Last Hunters or First Farmers? Mobility Patterns during the Mesolithic-Neolithic Transition in the Austrian Alps

10:50 Tringham, Ruth (Berkeley), Walking to Nowhere: European Neolithic Migrations, Mobility and Movement

11:15 Meg Conkey (Berkeley) On the Move, Making Tracks, but Marking and Making Place in Ice Age Europe

11:40 Lisa Maher (Berkeley) Hunter-Gatherer Home-Making? Building Landscape and Community in the Epipalaeolithic and Neolithic

* * *

12:05 Lunch on Hearst Museum Patio for participants and their guests

Alternate Activity: Archaeological Research Facility Brownbag: Landscapes of Heritage at the Blackfeet Boarding School, Montana, Dr. William White (Berkeley), 2251 College Ave (You can bring your lunch!)

* * *

1:30 Jun Sunseri, Mario Castillo, and Erika Lin (Berkeley) Contributions of GIS and Experimental Data to Landscape Archaeologies of Movement in Equestrian Societies

1:55 Alexander Schütze (Munich), Mobility in the Context of the Persian Empire: The Case of the Judaeon Military Colony at Elephantine (Egypt)

2:20 Michael Roaf (Munich), The Migration of the Persians into Fars

2:45 Mélanie Flossmann-Schütze (Munich) Mobility of Animals in Late Period and Greco-Roman Egypt: A Case Study of the Ibiotapheion at Tuna el-Gebel

3:10 Julia Budka (Munich), Migration along the Nile during the 2nd Millennium BCE – Case Studies from Sai Island, Sudan

4:00 PM Adjournment

Thursday, September 14

Location: Phoebe Hearst Museum Gallery Learning Center

9:30 -- Arrivals and settling in. (Coffee, tea, and pastries will be available)

New Voices: Workshopping New Ideas

10:00 Nico Tripcevich (Berkeley), Andean Caravans and Regional Archaeology

10:30 Andrea Creel (Berkeley), "Ritual on the Road: Movement and Liminality in the Southern Levantine Drylands"

11:00 - 11:15 Break

11:15 - 11:45 Benjamin Porter, "Further Thinking on the Making Jerusalem Project"

11:45 - 12:30 Theme 1: Refining mobility: Scale, scope, intensity, iterative vs. episodic

1:15 - 2:00 Curator-led tour of Hearst Museum Exhibition: People Made These Things: Connecting with the Makers of Our World (Adam Nilsen)

2:00 Theme 2: Contexts: Mountains, deserts, water

2:30 Theme 3: Identity and Power: How does mobility shape identity and contribute to ethnogenesis? Who does and does not move? And who benefits?

3:15 Closing Discussion