

LMU-UC Berkeley Research in the Humanities

Call for Applications: Conferences in 2013

As part of our research cooperation with LMU, the University of California, Berkeley, can support conferences and workshops in Berkeley conducted jointly by researchers from LMU and UCB with grants of up to $20,000.

Application

- Faculty members in the Arts and Humanities and Humanistic Social Sciences together with their research partners at UC Berkeley are eligible to apply. Existing contacts with UCB researchers are a prerequisite. The application must indicate at least one faculty member from Berkeley and one from LMU.
- Project proposals should be e-mailed (in English) to ajcascardi@berkeley.edu, and should include the following information:
 - o name of applicants, affiliations and departments
 - o time frame of project
 - o project description
 - o names of other cooperating partners at UC Berkeley
 - o detailed budget
 - o other/current sources of funding

Deadline for conference applications in 2013 is 15 April 2013. (The deadline for conferences in 2014 will be 15 October 2013.)
