Dual Career Service

Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität

Our mission

The Dual Career Service provided by Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität (LMU) München is designed to support highly qualified academics who intend to take up posts at the University, and their families, in all matters related to their relocation to Munich.

The main task of the Dual Career Service is to assist the partners of academics who come to work at LMU to find appropriate career opportunities in Munich.

We make it our business to ensure that you and your family get off to a good start in Munich.

Who can avail of the service?

We can help you, if you ...

... have been offered a professorship at LMU
... are moving to Munich (from elsewhere in Germany or from abroad) to take up a position as a junior scientist at LMU.

What can we do for you?

We can assist you in:

Looking for a suitable job in Munich

- By identifying job opportunities appropriate to experience and career stage
- Supplying information regarding job opportunities both at LMU and related research institutions
- Providing an analysis of the regional job market
- Establishing contacts with potential employers
- Offering advice on application strategies

In relocating to Munich

- By providing information on child-care facilities and schools
- Helping to find suitable accommodation
- Offering assistance with administrative procedures
- Providing information on professional training and language courses

The first steps

- Contact us by email, by phone or in person
- Outline your wishes by filling out a form
- Discuss your needs, and our suggestions, with us either in person or on the phone
- Formulate and implement agreed objectives
