The European University Alliance for Global Health
EUGLOH - consortium

Unique by:

- Long lasting collaborations in higher education and research
- Extensive expertise in fields related to Global Health
- A unique set of large-scale infrastructures
- Strong research and socio-economic ecosystems
- Broad geographic and cultural diversity
A cohesive topic embracing several fields and responding to crucial societal challenges

Among which:

- The future of medicine and emerging diseases
- Digital health and technologies for health and well-being (big data, AI, robotics, ...)
- Impact of the climate change, environmental hazards, and biodiversity
- Health economics and health management, health policy and systems, law, ethics and responsible research
- Plants, sports, nutrition, food... for healthy life and well-being Ambition

Train the future generations of European leaders, innovators, experts and practitioners who will serve all sectors of the society, ready to face interdisciplinary societal challenges related to global health.

Become a world-class higher education alliance focused on global health and well-being challenges.

Promote European values, such as solidarity, equality of opportunities, inclusiveness, respect for human rights and full access to welfare.

Set the foundation of a common European health area.
Goals by 2025

EUGLOH as a pilot European university able to:

- offer a European experience to 50% of its students at all levels
- improve the competences and European practices of the teaching and administrative staff
- build a European campus with a high level of integration sustained by joint procedures and structures
- boost attractiveness and competitiveness of European higher education, research and innovation
- be an internationally recognized observatory of best practices and expertise in Global Health
